20. What are the most valuable aspects of this course?
	Expanding my knowledge of faiths that are outside of my tradition.
	I really enjoy the open discussions this class fosters. It helps me take charge of my learning.
	The close discussions between student and professor Very deep and thoughtful discussions throughout the course.
	the most valuable aspects of this class include learning about the different religious faiths of the world. In learning about them, I have come to acknowledge the many different faiths and perspectives that exist in the world. This class has helped me further deepen my critical thinking skills and it has set me up to always read and question/doubt everything that I come across. I have also learned to appreciate and apply different religious faiths to my own.
	Class discussion was the most valuable aspect. Dr. Wells could use any comment a student made to draw the class into discussion.
	Learning that is okay to learn about other religious backgrounds and will be committed to your own.
	Wells
	I find this course relates to both personal religious practices and career building. Although I'm not a religions major, I found this class to be extremely applicable to my political science major.
